Description

Surprisingly large and aesthetically renovated throughout to a high level, this four-bedroom semi-detached family home has the benefit of a large block paved private front drive with access to a garage and a large and private rear garden. The house is situated in a quiet and family orientated cul-de-sac on the outskirts of Bishops Stortford Town Centre and has good transport links to the M11 corridor.

The lower level of this large family home features an exceptionally large open plan living/ dining area which is finished with wood style flooring and has patio style doors that lead to a conservatory. This level also features a separated kitchen which is fitted and contains a Samsung American Style fridge freezer and is complete with a downstairs W/C. The upper floor houses four bedrooms, a family size bathroom and access to the loft. The property is offered on the rental market either furnished or unfurnished.
