Description

Centrally located within the sought after Riverside Wharf development overlooking the developments communal terrace. This ideal home is located within Bishops Stortford Town Centre and is within walking distance of various bars, restaurants, shops and the mainline rail station.

This contemporary one double bedroom apartment is enhanced by its open plan living area which includes all of the necessary components including integrated dishwasher, fridge freezer and oven. The area remains a social hub and the focal point of the apartment and leads to the bright and airy sitting room, which is aided by real wood flooring and a double, tilt and turn style feature picture window.

Remaining well-proportioned throughout, the apartment has a large double size bedroom complete with cream-colored carpet and bespoke furnishings. This well-maintained apartment is complete with a family size bathroom that has the benefit of a full size bath, shower off the mains, professionally fitted and made to measure large mirror and is finished with a mosaic tile style laminate flooring.
