Description

Situated in the town centre of Bishops Stortford and offered furnished, this modern two-bedroom apartment is now available on the rental market.

This well-proportioned property has a large open-plan living area which features a fitted kitchen with integrated appliances. The property has an added benefit of both an en-suite shower room and a family sized bathroom. Including an allocated parking space within the development.

Green House remains a popular residential development due to its proximity to the mainline rail station which is a 5-minute walk and offers direct services to London Liverpool Street, Cambridge and Stansted Airport.
